

As a system administrator, I want to manage user permissions so that I can control their access to different application resources.